Hudson County Board of Commissioners Congratulate,
Commend, and Applaud Kenneth Mack on receiving the 2021
NJAC Foundation and SHI International Scholarship Award

Jersey City-The Hudson County Board of Commissioners congratulate, commend, and applaud Kenneth Mack on receiving the 2021 NJAC Foundation and SHI International Scholarship Award.

Kenneth Mack, a Secaucus resident, is a 2021 graduate of High Tech High School of the Hudson County Schools of Technology who has been awarded the 2021 NJAC Foundation and SHI International Scholarship Award for Hudson County. This scholarship program is designed to encourage distinguished students who have chosen to pursue their career training at a County or State educational institution within New Jersey.

Kenneth Mack is a fine young man who will be studying Cyber Security upon graduating from High Tech High School. He is a Broadcasting Technology major and holds a 3.0 GPA. Kenneth Mack is a hard-working, respectful and dedicated student who is dedicated to the community.

Kenneth Mack will pursue his academic career in Cyber Security this fall at Kean University.

Kenneth Mack's hard work and commitment to excellence have brought honor upon himself, his family, his school and the County of Hudson.

Board Chairman Anthony Vainieri and the Hudson County Board of Commissioners congratulate, commend and applaud Kenneth Mack upon being awarded the 2021 NJAC Foundation and SHI International Scholarship Award and wish him every success in his college endeavors.
