Immediate Release

Hudson County Board of Commissioners Congratulate, Commend, Honor and Applaud Daryl Krasnuk and the Office of Digital Information on receiving the Special Achievement Award in Geographic Information System (GIS)

Jersey City-The Hudson County Board of Commissioners congratulate, commend, honor and applaud Daryl Krasnuk and the Office of Digital Information on receiving the Special Achievement Award in Geographic Information System (GIS).

Environmental Systems Research Institute (ESRI) is an international supplier of geographic information system (GIS) software management and geodatabase management system applications.

ESRI has over one million users in over 200 countries and is the largest software provider in the world.

Daryl Krasnuk and the Office of Digital Information have been selected to receive a Special Achievement in GIS (SAG) Award from ESRI which award is given to user sites around the world to recognize outstanding work with GIS technology.

This award is given to 180 organizations each year, selected from over 100,000 organizations all over the world based upon their overall contribution to GIS to solve problems.

The award is presented at the International User's Conference hosted by ESRI and Hudson County projects will be highlighted at the Conference along with the 2020 Official County Map, the new Parks website and other projects.

The County Administration is proud of this award being given to Daryl Krasnuk and the Office of Digital Information.

Board Chairman Anthony Vainieri, the Hudson County Board of Commissioners along with County Executive Tom DeGise congratulates, commends, honors and applauds Daryl Krasnuk and the Office of Digital Information on the ESRI Special Achievement Award.
