Hudson County Board of Commissioners Congratulate,
Commend, and Applaud Roobbie Bacos on receiving the 2021
NJAC Foundation and Investors Foundation Scholarship Award

Jersey City-The Hudson County Board of Commissioners congratulates, commend, and applaud Roobbie Bacos on receiving the 2021 NJAC Foundation and Investors Foundation Scholarship Award.

Roobbie Bacos, a Jersey City resident, is a 2021 graduate of High Tech High School of the Hudson County Schools of Technology who has been awarded the 2021 NJAC Foundation and Investors Foundation Scholarship Award for Hudson County. This scholarship program is designed to encourage distinguished students who have chosen to pursue their career training at a County or State educational institution within New Jersey.

Roobbie Bacos is an excellent student. He is an eager learner who takes advantage of any opportunity made available to him. He is a leader in class discussions and is always the first to volunteer. He is actively involved in campus activities, including, student council, key club and intramurals. Roobbie Bacos has been volunteering at the York Street Project in Jersey City since 2017. The York Street Project helps feed, educate and shelter women, children and families. He helps with organizing donations, keeping track of inventory, and assists with the York Street Project's Winter Bazaar.

Roobie Bacos will pursue his academic career in Science this fall at New Jersey Institute of Technology.

Roobie Bacos's hard work and commitment to excellence have brought honor upon himself, his family, his school and the County of Hudson.

Board Chairman Anthony Vainieri and the Hudson County Board of Commissioners congratulate, commend and applaud Roobie Bacos upon being awarded the 2021 NJAC Foundation and Investors Foundation Scholarship Award and wish him every success in his college endeavors.
