Immediate Release

Hudson County Board of Commissioners accepted funds from the New Jersey Law and Public Safety Division of Criminal Justice Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) and Victim Assistance Grant Program for $535,395

Jersey City-The Hudson County Board of Commissioners accepted funds from the New Jersey Law and Public Safety Division of Criminal Justice Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) and Victim Assistance Grant Program for $535,395.

The Prosecutor's Office Crime Victim/Witness Advocacy Program provides a broad range of services, which includes notification, transportation arrangements and assistance with recovered property. It also provides crime victims with case information and referral assistance to hospitals, victim aid, supplies, equipment, clinics and social services agencies and purchase of services.

The grant period started July 1, 2021 and will run through June 30, 2022.

Chairman Anthony Vainieri and the Board of Commissioners are committed to providing the necessary resources necessary to ensure victims of crimes feel safe and protected in Hudson County.
