Immediate Release

Hudson County Board of Commissioners approved the acceptance of funds from the NJ Department of Labor and Workforce Development to Educational Services Providers for the Workfirst New Jersey Program for Hudson County Residents totaling $68,682

Hudson County- The Hudson County Board of Commissioners approved the acceptance of funds from the NJ Department of Labor and Workforce Development to Educational Providers for the Workfirst New Jersey Program for Hudson County residents totaling $68,682.

The WorkFirst NJ emphasizes work as the first step toward building a new life and brighter future. The goal is to help people get off welfare, secure employment, become self-sufficient, through job training, education and work activities.

The funds will be utilized to provide educational services, work preparation, and training activities for WorkFirst New Jersey clients. The funds will also provide basic education skills, employment, job search and readiness services that assist clients in securing employment and or becoming self-sufficient.

The State Department of Labor and WorkForce Development for WorkFirst New Jersey (WFNJ) grant was for the period of July 1, 2021 to June 30, 2022.

Board Chairman Anthony Vainieri and the Hudson County Board of Commissioners are committed to providing the necessary resources needed to ensure that county residents are prepared to enter the job market.
