Hudson County Board of Commissioners approve $1,334,629 to Integrity House to provide Substance Abuse Treatment Programs at the Hudson County Adult Correctional Center in Kearny

Jersey City-The Hudson County Board of Commissioners approve $1,334,629 to Integrity House to provide Residential Substance Abuse Treatment Programs for men and women at the Hudson County Adult Correctional Center in Kearny.

The program provides for mental health as well as drug addiction counseling tailored to the residential population. It will facilitate their re-entry into the community and prevent recidivism.

The program will run from October 1, 2021 to June 30, 2022.

Integrity House has over 40 years of professional experience providing substance abuse and mental health counseling to its clients.

Board Chairman Anthony Vainieri and the Board of Commissioners are committed in their resolve in providing the necessary resources needed in providing substance abuse and mental health counseling to inmates who are ready for community re-entry. This program will assist in reducing recidivism.
