Jersey City-The Hudson County Board of Commissioners approved the County of Hudson to accept from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Health Resources Services Administration Covid-19 Response Funds totaling $109,405 for fiscal year 2021.

The purpose of the funds is to provide services for older adults and their caregivers to support activities related to vaccine access including disseminating and directing individuals to credible information about Covid-19. They will identify individuals who need help getting a Covid-19 vaccination, and assist individuals with any scheduling, arranging, reminding, transporting or other support necessary to get vaccinated.

The term of the grant funding is until September 30, 2022.

Board Chairman Anthony Vainieri and The Board of Commissioners are committed to providing the needed support services, referral services, and prevention services to the senior residents and their caregivers of Hudson County.
