Hudson County Board of Commissioners Congratulate and Commend Police Officer Harold Milne on being honored as Hoboken's Irish Police Officer of the Year

Hudson County- The Hudson County Board of Commissioners congratulates and commends Police Officer Harold Milne on being honored as Hoboken's Irish Police Officer of the year.

Officer Milne's exemplary efforts to promote and uphold the proud heritage of Irish-Americans has not gone unnoticed. Officer Milne for decades has shown a long commitment to the people of Hoboken.

Harold Milne was born and raised in Hoboken, New Jersey and graduated from St. Peter's Preparatory School.

After completing the Bergen County Police Academy in 2016, Harold Milne accomplished his life dream of becoming a Hoboken Police Officer, joining his brother Detective Connor Milne in the Hoboken Police Department.

Since joining the Hoboken Police Department, Harold Milne has worked the midnight shift and has been recognized multiple times for his excellence in policing, receiving an honorary service award for successfully stopping a burglary in progress in 2018, and a gallantry star for successfully disarming and apprehending a knife wielding assailant in 2017. His proudest accomplishment is being a two-time Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) award recipient, having made over 50 DUI arrests since joining the Hoboken police force.

Harold Milne is married to Jessica who has also dedicated herself to public service, working for the Bergen County Superior Court. He and Jessica are expecting their first child in June.

Harold Milne's parents have dedicated themselves to the City of Hoboken. Harold's father is employed by Hoboken's Senior Citizen Division and his legendary mother, Linda, is employed at Leo's Grandevous, one of the oldest and best-known Italian restaurants in Hoboken, where she serves her customers with a smile each and every day.

Board Chairman Anthony Vainieri and the Hudson County Board of Commissioners extend its highest commendations to Officer Harold Milne for being honored as Hoboken's 2022 Irish Police Officer of the Year. The Board further commends and applauds Officer Harold Milne for his dedicated service to the community of Hoboken and the County of Hudson.
