Immediate Release

Hudson County Board of Commissioners approved the County of Hudson to apply and accept $37,000 in grant funds from the New Jersey Division of Aging Services Funds to provide various programs and services to seniors or residents who are disabled in Hudson County.

Jersey City-The Hudson County Board of Commissioners approved the County of Hudson to apply and accept $37,000 in grant funds from the New Jersey Division of Aging Services Funds to provide various programs and services to seniors or residents who are disabled in Hudson County.

The purpose of the program is to provide services that include medical care, essential support services and social services programs to senior citizens or low income residents who have disabilities in Hudson County.

The program is from April 1, 2022 through March 31, 2023.

Board Chairman Anthony Vainieri and the Board of Commissioners are committed to providing a comprehensive and coordinated system of support services for the elderly and low income residents with disabilities in Hudson County.
