Hudson County Board of Commissioners approved the 2022 Budget Amendment New Jersey Department of Health Hudson County Ambulatory Tuberculosis Care Program for $318,116

Jersey City-The Hudson County Board of Commissioners approved the 2022 Budget Amendment New Jersey Department of Health Hudson County Ambulatory Tuberculosis Care Program for $318,116.

The program will start July 1, 2022 and will run through June 30, 2023.

The Hudson County Department of Health and Human Services, in conjunction with the regionally designated ambulatory Chest Clinic, will administer the funding related to this award to pay supportive services which include salary for staff and fringe benefits. Laboratory services x-ray services, medical service contract with Global Tuberculosis Institute at UMDNJ Rutgers and pulmonologist physician services are being used as in-kind match.

The award of this funding will allow for the provision of clinical care at no cost to patients that are categorized as TB cases, contacts, and persons with suspected tuberculosis.

Chairman Anthony Vainieri and the Board of Commissioners are committed to providing the programs necessary to ensure the well-being of the residents of Hudson County.
