Immediate Release

Hudson County Board of Commissioners allocating American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 Behavioral Health and Wellness Response Grant Funds to various providers for year two of a competitive contracting process for $415,000

Jersey City-The Hudson County Board of Commissioners is allocating American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 Behavioral Health and Wellness Response Grant Funds to various providers for year two of a competitive contracting process for $415,000.

The grant period will start August 16, 2022 and will run through August 15, 2023.

The funds will provide ongoing COVID-19 response and recovery social service programs to mitigate the devastating affects the COVID-19 pandemic has had on Hudson County residents.

The funds will provide education and programming that includes mental health services for adults, families, young people, and children.

Chairman Anthony Vainieri and the Board of Commissioners are committed to ensuring the residents of Hudson County have programs in place to assist with the ongoing affects that COVID-19 has had on our communities.
