Immediate Release

Hudson County Board of Commissioners approved funds under the United States Bureau of Justice Assistance Comprehensive Opioid, Stimulant and Substance Abuse Program for $99,000 to Rutgers University Behavioral Research and Training Program

Jersey City-The Hudson County Board of Commissioners approved funds under the United States Bureau of Justice Assistance Comprehensive Opioid, Stimulant and Substance Abuse Program (COSSAP) for $99,000 to Rutgers University Behavioral Research and Training program.

The funds will help provide support and services, including ongoing and advanced data collection regarding the Overdose Fatality Review Team and community member services for the Comprehensive Opioid, Stimulant and Substance Abuse Program.

The program will run from October 1, 2022 through September 30, 2023.

Board Chairman Anthony Vainieri and the Board of Commissioners are committed to providing the necessary resources needed to combat mental health challenges, to provide treatment, education and prevention of the effects of drug abuse to the residents of Hudson County.
