Immediate Release

Hudson County Board of Commissioners approved the County of Hudson to accept $1,448,365 in grant funds from the New Jersey Division of Aging Services Funds to provide various programs and services to seniors in Hudson County.

Jersey City-The Hudson County Board of Commissioners approved the County of Hudson to accept $1,448,365 in grant funds from the New Jersey Division of Aging Services Funds to provide various programs and services to seniors in Hudson County.

The purpose of the program is to provide services that include medical care, essential support services and social services programs for senior citizens in Hudson County. The funds will also be used to combat vaccine hesitancy, support vaccine equity efforts, provide transportation stipends/vouchers to individuals seeking vaccination or testing, pay for staff to plan and organize vaccine activities, assist with vaccine booster shots, and address social isolation.

The program is from July 1, 2022 through September 30, 2024.

Chairman Anthony Vainieri and the Board of Commissioners are committed to providing a comprehensive and coordinated system of support services for the senior citizens of Hudson County. These government and community based agencies will ensure that all county senior residents are provided with the best available support services.
