Hudson County Board of Commissioners approved an Educational Services Contract for Hudson County Community College for the continuation of Academic Workforce and Pathway Program, totaling $710,824.

Hudson County- The Hudson County Board of Commissioners approved an Educational Services Contract for Hudson County Community College for the continuation of Academic Workforce and Pathway Program, totaling $710,824.

The Department of Housing and Community Reintegration awarded two additional years to the contract with Hudson Community College. The funding for this program was received from the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs Re-entry Pilot Legislative Grant. This program allows Hudson County to continue to be a pioneer in the implementation and projected success of the program, where inmates housed at the Hudson County Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation are afforded the opportunity of studying, earning college credits while being in a county jail, and obtaining sixty credits towards a certificate and undergraduate degree programs.

The program runs through from June 1, 2023, through May 31, 2025.

Board Chairman Anthony Romano and the Hudson County Board of Commissioners are committed to providing the necessary resources to assist individuals in obtaining college credits through the Community Affairs Re-entry Pilot Legislative Program.
