Hudson County Board of Commissioners approve $3,000,000 to Integrity House to provide Substance Abuse Treatment Programs at the Hudson County Adult Correctional and Rehabilitation Center in Kearny

Jersey City-The Hudson County Board of Commissioners approve $3,000,000 to Integrity House to provide Residential Substance Abuse Treatment Programs for 240 men and women at the Hudson County Adult Correctional and Rehabilitation Center in Kearny.

The program provides for mental health as well as drug addiction counseling tailored to the residential population. It will facilitate their re-entry into the community and prevent recidivism. Individuals with addictions and or mental health needs will be provided with detoxification services, long term and short-term residential care, and intensive outpatient care. Of the 240 beds, 160 beds will be used for long term residential care and the remaining 80 will be used for “step down” programing.

The program will run from July 1, 2023, to June 30, 2024.

Integrity House has over 40 years of professional experience providing substance abuse and mental health counseling to its clients.

Board Chairman Anthony Romano and the Board of Commissioners are committed in their resolve in providing the necessary resources needed in providing substance abuse and mental health counseling to inmates who are ready for community re-entry. This program will assist in reducing recidivism.
