Immediate Release

Hudson County Board of Commissioners approved the application and acceptance of a Jake's Law Playground Grant from the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection for Improvements to James J. Braddock Park ($1,000,000)

Jersey City-The Hudson County Board of Commissioners approved the application and acceptance of a Jake's Law Playground Grant from the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection for improvements to James J. Braddock Park ($1,000,000).

The funds will include costs for design, construction management, and other non-construction costs and insurance.

James J. Braddock Park will receive an upgrade to the existing playground section to accommodate children with special needs by including playground equipment. This equipment helps develop various sensory skills by including the use of colors, sound and feel.

Board Chairman Anthony Romano, Commissioner Robert Baselice and The Board of Commissioners are committed to improving and repairing all Hudson County parks to ensure the safety of county residents and its visitors.
