Hudson County- The Hudson County Board of Commissioners approved the 2023 Local Efficiency Achievement Program (LEAP) Challenge Grant, totaling $150,000.

The Department of Community Affairs established the Local Efficiency Achievement Program (LEAP) Grant Program to assess the feasibility of shared services which will explore innovative methods municipalities could use to uplift the work of local food pantries and identify strategies for centralizing these services at the county level. This shared service effort will be integral to our long-term strategy to promote equitable healthy food access in Hudson County.

The program runs through from July 1, 2023, through July 30, 2024.

Board Chairman Anthony Romano and the Hudson County Board of Commissioners are committed to providing the necessary resources to assist Hudson County become more efficient in providing services innovative methods to municipalities to uplift the work at food pantries.
