Hudson County Board of Commissioners approves the acceptance of $300,000 in funds from the New Jersey Department of Law and Public Safety for the County Prosecutor Insurance Fraud Reimbursement Program

Hudson County- The Hudson County Board of Commissioners approves the acceptance of $300,000 in funds from the New Jersey Department of Law and Public Safety for the County Prosecutor Insurance Fraud Reimbursement Program.

The grant will be for the term of January 1, 2024, through December 31, 2024. The grant amount is $300,000.

The unit's operations clearly demonstrate that there continues to be pervasive atmosphere for insurance fraud related criminal activity within Hudson County. Working cooperatively with other law enforcement agencies as well as the insurance industry, the unit will continue to target traditional offenses such as arson for profit, lease/loan give-ups and fraudulent documents. The unit will also pursue major operations engaging in deceptive and fraudulent vehicle and property insurance practices.

Chairman Anthony Romano and the Hudson County Board of Commissioners are committed to providing the necessary resources to assist the Hudson County Prosecutors Office in its fight to curtail Insurance Fraud in Hudson County.
