Hudson County Board of Commissioners approved a professional service contract for $800,000 to the North Hudson Community Action Corporation for medical health services.

Hudson County- The Hudson County Board of Commissioners approved a professional services contract for $800,000 to the North Hudson Community Action Corporation for medical health services.

The North Hudson Community Action Corporation will provide essential infectious disease services, including HIV and Hepatitis-C for inmates at the Hudson County Correctional and Rehabilitation Center.

As a Federally Qualified Health Center, North Hudson Community Action Corporation can provide reduced rate medications through the federally funded 340B Drug Pricing Program, resulting in significant cost savings for the county while ensuring that inmates receive necessary medications. Over the past 12 months, the county has saved approximately $83,951.29 on infectious disease medication through this program.

Board Chairman Anthony Romano, Commissioner Fanny Cedeno and the Hudson County Board of Commissioners approved the professional services contract for the North Hudson Community Action Corporation to provide medical health services for the inmates at the Hudson County Correctional and Rehabilitation Center.
