Hudson County Board of Commissioners approved the County of Hudson to provide a Grant for $17,500 to Surati for the Performing Arts through the Hudson County Office of Cultural & Heritage Affairs

Jersey City-The Hudson County Board of Commissioners approved the County of Hudson to provide a grant for $17,500 to Surati for the Performing Arts through the Hudson County Office of Cultural & Heritage Affairs.

The purpose of this grant is to award competitive matching grants to organizations, based on merit and financial need which clearly demonstrates their commitment to history and heritage in Hudson County. This organization with roots in India and Indian culture, educates, highlights, and showcases primarily Indian performing arts, themes, stories, and festivals often creating significant partnerships, arts in education and fusion works with other cultures. Surati's mission is to promote Indian art and culture, educate and enrich the community primarily through dance, music, theatre, arts, and crafts.

The grant award is for the fiscal year 2024.

Board of Commissioners Chairman Anthony Romano and the Board of Commissioners are committed to provide the necessary resources needed to promote Indian art and culture not only locally but also state-wide and nationally.
