Hudson County Board of Commissioners approved an agreement between Hackensack University Medical Center/ Audrey Hepburn Children's House for clinical services to be provided at the Hudson County Prosecutor's Office Child Advocacy Center.

Jersey City-The Hudson County Board of Commissioners approved an agreement between Hackensack University Medical Center/Audrey Hepburn Children's House for clinical services to be provided at the Hudson County Prosecutor's Office Child Advocacy Center.

The grant is for $70,000 and it will be utilized to treat and assess all forms of children maltreatment. This comprehensive program is comprised of highly trained specialty doctors, nurses, and psychologists who work collaboratively to ensure the care of the child victims affected by sexual abuse, physical abuse, and neglect.

The grant term is from April 1, 2024, through March 31, 2025.

Board Chairman Anthony Romano and the Board of Commissioners are committed to provide the necessary resources needed to conduct wellness exams of children who are suspected of being physically or sexually abused or neglected, and of children who have witnessed domestic violence.
