Immediate Release

Hudson County Board of Commissioners Congratulate, Honor, and Commend Jerico Raro on receiving the 2024 NJAC Foundation AT&T Scholarship Award.

Hudson County- The Hudson County Board of Commissioners congratulates, honor, and commends Jerico Raro on receiving the 2024 NJAC Foundation AT&T Scholarship Award.

Jerico Raro, a Jersey City resident, is a 2024 graduate of High-Tech High School of the Hudson County Schools of Technology who has been awarded the 2024 NJAC Foundation AT&T Scholarship Award for Hudson County. This scholarship program is designed to encourage distinguished students who have chosen to pursue their career training at a County or State educational institution within New Jersey.

Jerico Raro possesses a strong interest in networking and collaboration, and flourishes in team-oriented environments that encourage innovation. Beyond academics, Jerico's compassion shines through his volunteer work fundraising for underprivileged communities in the Philippines. This dedication to making a positive impact extends beyond his studies, demonstrating a well-rounded character. Jerico Raro's commitment to both academic excellence and philanthropic endeavors exemplifies his potential to be a significant contributor to the field of computer science and the betterment of his community.

Jerico Raro will pursue his academic career in Computer Science this fall at the New Jersey City University.

Jerico Raro's hard work and commitment to excellence have brought honor upon himself, his family, his school and the County of Hudson.

Board Chairman Anthony Romano and the Board of Commissioners congratulate and commend Jerico Raro upon being awarded the 2024 NJAC Foundation AT&T Scholarship Award and wish him every success in his college endeavors.
