Immediate Release

Hudson County Board of Commissioners Congratulate, Honor, and Commend Monika Gerges on receiving the 2024 NJAC Foundation PSE&G Scholarship Award.

Hudson County- The Hudson County Board of Commissioners congratulates, honor, and commends Monika Gerges on receiving the 2024 NJAC Foundation PSE&G Scholarship Award.

Monika Gerges, a Bayonne resident, is a 2024 graduate of County Prep High School of the Hudson County Schools of Technology who has been awarded the 2024 NJAC Foundation PSE&G Scholarship Award for Hudson County. This scholarship program is designed to encourage distinguished students who have chosen to pursue their career training at a County or State educational institution within New Jersey.

Monika Gerges has worked in an incredibly diverse environment. She is an excellent and hard-working student, who has dedicated herself to enriching the lives of her community, fellow students and faculty around her. Throughout high school, she has consistently chosen science courses, both required and elective, showcasing her strong interest in the field. These classes include Water Resources, Soil Sciences, Environmental Field and Research, Urban Ecology, and Earth and Space Science. Monika Gerges actively participated in several school clubs: Youth Urban Farm Club Community Garden, Green Club (where she served as Co-President), Peer Tutoring, and STEM Club. Notably, she played a key role in establishing a garden bed and compost tumbler on campus through her work with the Green Club.

Monika Gerges will pursue her academic career in Environmental Engineering this fall at Rutgers University.

Monika Gerges's hard work and commitment to excellence have brought honor upon herself, her family, her school and the County of Hudson.

Board Chairman Anthony Romano and the Board of Commissioners congratulate and commend Monika Gerges upon being awarded the 2024 NJAC Foundation PSE&G Scholarship Award and wish her every success in her college endeavors.
