Hudson County Board of Commissioners Congratulate, Honor, and Commend Alexandra Valde on receiving the 2024 NJAC Foundation SHI International Scholarship Award.

Hudson County- The Hudson County Board of Commissioners congratulates, honor, and commends Alexandra Valde on receiving the 2024 NJAC Foundation SHI International Scholarship Award.

Alexandra Valde, a Jersey City resident, is a 2024 graduate of County Prep High School of the Hudson County Schools of Technology who has been awarded the 2024 NJAC Foundation and SHI International Scholarship Award for Hudson County. This scholarship program is designed to encourage distinguished students who have chosen to pursue their career training at a County or State educational institution within New Jersey.

Alexandra Valde's solid academic background and deep interest in technology makes her incredibly qualified for this scholarship. Her 3.8 grade point average and challenging classes, from Calculus to AP English Language & Composition, demonstrated her unwavering commitment to her studies. Her passion for information technology is a dynamic fusion of inventiveness, problem-solving and curiosity. Alexandra Valde firmly believes that every problem within the major is a riddle which can be continuously solved and improved, feeding the need for lifelong development. This passion drives her to pursue a variety of academic interests, and financial support would make this endeavor much easier. Getting this chance would enable her to fulfill her goals and make significant contributions to the discoveries and breakthroughs she hopes to see in the future.

Alexandra Valde will pursue her academic career in Information Technology this fall at New Jersey Institute of Technology.

Alexandra Valde's hard work and commitment to excellence have brought honor upon herself, her family, her school and the County of Hudson.

Board Chairman Anthony Romano and the Board of Commissioners congratulate and commend Alexandra Valde upon being awarded the 2024 NJAC Foundation SHI International Scholarship Award and wish her every success in her college endeavors.
