Immediate Release

Hudson County Board of Commissioners approved an authorization to accept a $100,000 grant from the New Jersey Department of Corrections to be utilized for services for the Hudson County Re-Entry Coordinators Program.

Hudson County- The Hudson County Board of Commissioners approved an authorization to accept a $100,000 grant from the New Jersey Department of Corrections to be utilized for services for the Hudson County Re-Entry Coordinators Program.

The Hudson County Re-Entry Coordinators Program works by determining whether an incarcerated person at the Hudson County Correctional Facility will benefit from substance use disorder treatment. This program also identifies additional treatment services and programs which aid the incarcerated person.

The program runs through the fiscal year 2024.

Board Chairman Anthony Romano and the Hudson County Board of Commissioners are committed to providing the necessary resources to assist individuals to obtain substance use disorder treatment.
